

ALCHEMY OF TRANSFORMATION

with Atum O'Kane

A New program for Spiritual Guidance Alumni

This course is designed as an advanced immersion training for those who have completed the Art of Spiritual Guidance Program or other programs with Atum. An in-depth experiential study of seven essential alchemical operations, which lie at the heart of the process of transformation, explores each operation from its corresponding psychological and spiritual dimensions. How they are reflected in and affect Relationships is also a theme. Special attention will be given to the archetypal images, myths and sacred rituals of various traditions, which embody the operations. A unique aspect of the program is emphasis upon a rich collection of spiritual practices that facilitate the alchemy of transformation, and creative exercises that help to integrate the operations.

Solutio ~ the dissolving of forms, stages and identities creates the opportunity for new life.

Calcinatio ~ the encounter with the Awesome Holy Fire and the purifying of emotions.

Sublimatio ~ the spiritualization of matter (our material existence) arising out of insight and meaning drawn from our experience.

Coagulatio ~ the materialization of spirit embodied in our capacity to integrate a realization/awakening into our being and life.

Mortificatio ~ the dying of structure/forms through fragmentation and the potential for re-constellating life in a new order.

Separatio ~ the gift of discernment which allows appropriate separation, in all areas of life inner & outer, in the service of individuation.

Coniunctio ~ the drawing together of disparate dimensions in a greater union, within the psyche and in embodied life in the world.

Requisites:

- ~ a commitment to engage these potent operations in your life, rather than seeking a solely intellectual understanding of them
- ~ to link with various spiritual practices offered
- ~ maintain a journal for reflection, to record experiences and images collected for each operation.
- ~ to work with an alchemical partner between sessions.
